FUKUOKA PRIZE 2010 & 2011 GUIDELINES FOR NOMINATIONS

Nominations for the Fukuoka Prize 2010 and 2011 shall be made in the following manner.

To make the program more future-oriented, we are currently more active in awarding artists/scholars from younger generations, who have so far made outstanding achievements in their respective fields and at the same time whose great contributions are further expected in the future.

1. Prize Categories

Individuals/groups are eligible candidates for all the prizes below.

(1) Academic Prize:

To be presented to one or two individuals or organizations that have made outstanding achievements in the field of Asian studies such as the social and human sciences, contributing to the world's understanding of Asia, and whose great contributions are further expected in the future.

(Prize money: 3 million yen)

(2) Arts and Culture Prize:

To be presented to one or two individuals or organizations that have made outstanding contributions in the cultivation and/or advancement of the unique and diverse arts and culture of Asia, and whose great contributions are further expected in the future. The term 'arts and culture' here implies a wide range of fields including the fine arts, literature, music, drama, dance, film, architecture, traditional and ethnic culture, and so forth.

(Prize money: 3 million yen)

(3) Grand Prize:

To be presented to an individual or an organization in either the field of academics or arts and culture. The laureate must have made outstanding contributions to the preservation and creation of Asian unique and diverse cultures, and have exhibited the significance of Asian culture to the world through the internationality, universality, popularity and/or creativity of their work.

(Prize money: 5 million yen)

- * The nominations should only be made for living persons.
- * The term 'Asia' here implies areas including East Asia, Southeast Asia, and South Asia (any regions located to the east of Pakistan).

2. Nomination Procedure

- * Please nominate candidates for (1) and (2) respectively. The laureate for (3) will be selected by the Fukuoka Prize Jury from among all the candidates nominated for (1) and (2).
- * One nominator can make a maximum of 2 nominations for each category ((1) and (2)).
- * Please fill in the attached nomination form in either English or Japanese.

3. Deadline/Address

Please send the completed form(s) either by e-mail, fax, or in the enclosed envelope no later than September 30, 2009.
